Editorial Policy

This report aims to inform all stakeholders about the philosophy and measures of Furukawa Electric Group in relation to its business activities, management, the environment and its relationship with society. What's more, this year we have compiled a digest version containing a collection of articles with strong and important messages. When editing the digest version, we have tried to provide information in a concise and clear manner, in a way that targets as broad a readership as possible.

We have been disclosing the report under the CSR section of the Furukawa Electric website instead of publishing a booklet for it. We also provide the digest version (PDF file) on the website so that you can download it.

Source Guideline

We referred to the GRI "Sustainability Reporting Guidelines 2006 (3rd Edition)" in composing this report.

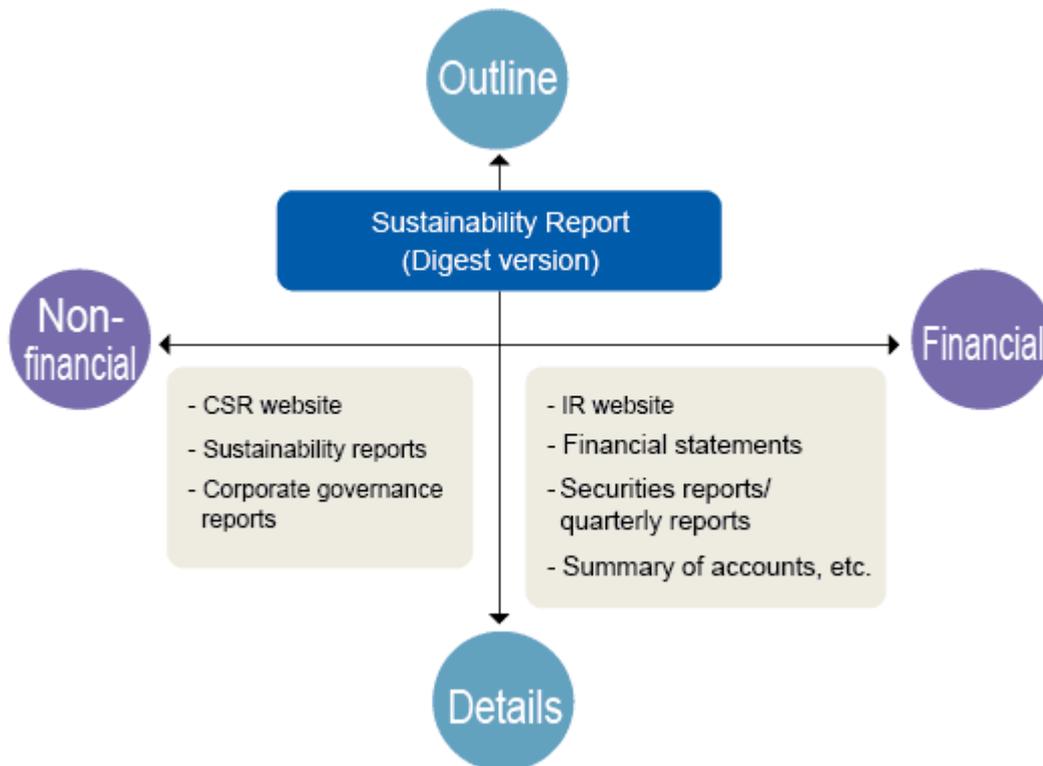

Accuracy of the Data Disclosed in This Report

In order to maintain accuracy in data disclosure, the information provided in this report has been vetted by the divisions in charge of the relevant information, the Investor & Public Relations Department and the CSR Department, which is in charge of editing this report. We have also provided a third-party opinion so as to offer the point of view of an outside expert.

Information Disclosure System

Furukawa Electric is fully aware that the timely and appropriate disclosure of corporate information to investors is essential to a healthy stock market. We take a serious approach to providing timely and appropriate corporate information to investors, including through the development of internal systems that allow us to disclose rapid, accurate and fair corporate information in a way that always keeps investors' perspective in mind.

Moreover, in order to increase the understanding of all stakeholders in respect to our company, we try to provide information through a variety of media, including non-financial information (see diagram on right).
