Reasons

Given a recovery in demand for electronics and automobile-related products and the effects of fixed cost reductions, among other factors, full-year operating income, recurring profit and net income for the consolidated fiscal year under review are all expected to exceed the previously announced forecasts. As a result, the Company has determined to revise its forecasts, as described above.

(Note)

The above forecasts have been prepared based on information available at the time of the announcement and assumptions associated with uncertain factors that may affect the Company's performance in the future. Actual results may differ materially from the forecasts presented in this document, depending on various factors in the future.
