Notice concerning company split (simplified absorption-type split) associated with reorganization of optical fiber and cable products business within the Group

The Company hereby announces that, at today's Board of Directors meeting, the Company has resolved to establish a wholly owned subsidiary (corporate name to be decided; hereinafter the "New Company"), and implement a company split (absorption-type split) where the New Company will succeed the Company's optical fiber and cable products business and all outstanding shares of Shoden Seiwa Co., Ltd. (hereinafter "Shoden Seiwa"), a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company which operates the business related to optical fiber and cable products (hereinafter the "Split Business") (hereinafter the "Company Split"). Details are as follows.

The Company will also establish another wholly owned subsidiary (corporate name to be decided; hereinafter the "Holding Company"), and make an in-kind contribution by transferring the shares (equity) in the New Company, and the Company's wholly owned subsidiaries OFS Fitel, LLC (hereinafter "OFS") and Furukawa Electric LatAm S.A. (hereinafter "FEL") to the Holding Company. Thereby, these three companies will become wholly owned subsidiaries of the Holding Company.

Since this Company Split is an absorption-type company split with the Company's wholly owned subsidiary, some items and details are omitted from this disclosure.

1. Purposes of the Company Split

Before this, the Group's optical fiber and cable products business has consisted of three business units, namely, the Company's optical fiber and cable products business division (Japan), OFS (U.S.), and FEL (Brazil), and each unit has operated the business in the respective region by taking advantage of its unique nature of business and strengths.

While the telecommunications market continues to grow, challenges facing the society and customers are increasingly becoming diverse due to the rapidly changing external environment, so it is necessary to further strengthen the capability to address changes in the business environment.

The Company decided to reorganize its optical fiber and cable products business by substantively integrating these three business units in order to make maximum use of each unit's strengths on a global scale, ensure efficient operation under uniform policies, and thus increase profit in the market.

The Holding Company is to be established in Japan by adopting the form of limited liability company, which allows the flexibility in designing governance. Furthermore, in order to become even more customer-oriented, it will adopt the operating structure of matrix organization through the combination of the headquarters' functions and regional management, to enhance the synergy among the units and realize the global management with a sense of unity.
